

Streak Climbs To Four With Doubleheader Loss

Mulvane's baseballers saw their losing streak climb to four games Thursday, April 14, with a doubleheader loss at Valley Center. The Hornets handed the Wildcats an 11-8 and 11-4 licking in a pair of Chisholm Trail League games.

"We started with six runs in the top of the first inning and couldn't hold on," said Katzenmeier. "We're just having trouble keeping people from scoring against us. We need to find some pitchers who can do the job."

The Cats' No. 1 hurler, Shay Cornejo, was absent, practicing to play on an all-star basketball team playing in the Mid Kansas Classic in Hutchinson. Katzenmeier went with Bruce Brashear, a sophomore, Adam Morris, Sean Gillespie and Kevin Long, a freshman, but none of the hurlers could quiet the VC bats.

"We're struggling right now," added Katzenmeier. "We need somebody to take charge. Long did a pretty good job but he's a freshman. Sean and Bruce are doing okay, but we just need to get a little tougher. The bottom line is somebody has to step forward and do the job on the mound."
