

Wildcat center Adam Edwards (45) gets off a shot inside against Augusta

Play Thursday At Chappy 'Complete Game' Eludes MHS Boys

The Mulvane High School boys' basketball team seems to be getting closer to playing that complete game head coach Scott Dunham has been talking about.

They're not quite there yet, but they're getting closer.

The Wildcats charged out of the gate against Buhler at home Tuesday night, Jan. 10, by jumping out to an 18-7 lead. By half-time, though, the lead had shrunk to two points, and Buhler's three-point shooting in the second half led to a 58-49 Mulvane loss, dropping Dunham's 'Cats to 1-7 overall on the season, 0-4 in AVCTL Division III.

The game, at times, resembled a three-point-shooting contest. Buhler made eight threes for the game while Mulvane made six, combining for nearly half of the teams' field goals. Buhler was also 14-17 from the free-throw line while Mulvane was 7-for-12.

Senior guard Tyler Ruder had four of Mulvane's six treys and scored a game-high 20 points before fouling out late in the game. He was also the only Wildcat in double figures. Mulvane also got seven points from Brock Kendall, six each from Chris Wilson and Ryan Herrig, four from Kyle Womacks, and three each from Dylan Donaldson and Adam Edwards.

The Wildcats also put up a fight at Augusta Friday night, Jan. 6, trailing by only four points after three quarters, but eventually fell to the host Orioles, 66-52.

Mulvane fell behind 9-2 early as the Orioles hit three quick three-pointers, but the 'Cats got back to within 14-9 by the end of the quarter. The margin remained five at halftime, 26-21. Mulvane outscored Augusta 15-14 in the third quarter to cut it
