

in physical geography have been

The B. B. game, which was played last Saturday in the Opera house, although a very poorly refereed, was a good game. Our girls won the game and as it was their first, they made an exceedingly good showing. Our girls scored two points off of free throws and ten off of field throws, the Wichita girls scoring ten points only. A return game will be played in Wichita in a couple of weeks in which both the boys and girls will participate.