

Wildcat Girls Win No. 2

Mulvane went into its four-corner offense early in the fourth quarter and the move was enough to persevere a 30-20 victory Saturday night as the Wildcat girls basketball team won the consolation title in the Caldwell Girls' Invitational.

The victory boosted coach Bill Browns' Wildcats to 2-10 for the season.

"It was a different ball club," said Brown, alluding to the fact that Mulvane had played a lackadaisical first-round game last week. "The big difference is that we hustled. Tuesday (in a 52-41 loss to Caldwell), we didn't."

Mulvane led the entire game and wrapped up its second victory of the year by going into a four-corner offense—which is basically a spread-out slowdown—with six minutes left. That offense, coupled with a strong defense, kept South Barber's girls from getting off but two shots in the final quarter and they missed both.

"That was a big factor," emphasized Brown. "We had a four-point lead with six minutes left and decided to go into the four-corner and won by 10, so it was really effective. The girls were patient with it."

Another critical factor in Mulvane's favor was rebounding, where the Wildcats came up with a huge 34-14 edge. Vicki Kill pulled down nine rebounds, Kathy Dody had eight and Cindi Lawless five.

South Barber would get only one shot and that was all," said Brown. "We were just a little bigger for the first time ever, I think. We dominated the boards."

Dody, a senior and the club's leading scorer, did her thing against South Barber, scoring a team-high nine points. Kill finished with six points and Lawless scored five.

Clearwater ended up winning the tournament, rapping the host school, 39-27, to take the title.
